

1 EXERCISES

- I. 1) He rules, he was ruling, he will rule.
2) I buy, I was buying, I shall buy.
3) They lead, they will lead, he was leading.
4) He has ruled, they have ruled, he has led.
5) They have led, you have bought, you have bought.
6) I have sent, we have sent, he has sent.
7) We send, they send, they will send.
8) The farmer has full fields of grain.
9) He will send that grain into the large town.
10) He sends this in full wagons with strong horses.
11) Who will drive these horses on the long road?
12) His sons, Marcus and Brutus, have led them and today they will lead.
13) The inhabitants of this town have bought the farmer's grain, not the wagons.
14) The boys have brought back gold and gifts for their friends.
15) These beautiful gifts were dear to their friends.
- II. 1) Regunt, regēbant, regent.
2) Dūcit, dūcēbat, dūcet.
3) Ēmī, emēbāmus, emēbant.
4) Mittō, mittam, mīsī.
5) Mittis, mittēs, mīsistis.
6) Mittere, emere, dūcere.
7) Ōlim Rōmānī terrās multās habuērunt.
8) Saepe nōn eōs bene regēbant.
9) Tum incolae eārum terrārum cum audāciā pūgnāvērunt.
10) Quae arma habuērunt?
11) Eōrum arma fuit hastae longae.
12) Eōs mīserunt; eīs Rōmānōs volnerāvērunt.