

1 EXERCISES

- I. 1) He rules, he was willing, he will rule.
2) I buy, I was buying, I shall buy.
3) They lead, they will lead, they were leading.
4) He has ruled, they have ruled, he has led.
5) They have led, you have bought, you have bought.
6) I have sent, we have sent, he has sent.
7) We send, they send, they will send.
8) The farmer has full fields of grain.
9) He will send that grain into the large town.
10) He sends this in full wagons with strong horses.
11) Who drove those horses on the long road?
12) He has led them, his sons, Marcus and Brutus, and today they will lead.
13) The inhabitants of this town have bought the farmers' grain, not the wagons.
14) The boys have brought back gold and gifts for their friends.
15) These beautiful gifts were pleasing to their friends.
- II. 1) Regunt, regēbant, regent.
2) Dūcit, dūcēbat, dūcet.
3) Ēmī, ēmimus, ēmērunt.
4) Mittō, mittam, mīsī.
5) Mittis, mittēs, mīsistis.
6) Mittere, emere, dūcere.
7) Olim Rōmānī terrās multās habuērunt.
8) Saepe nōn eōs bene regēbant.
9) Tum incolae eārum terrārum cum audāciā pūgnāvērunt.
10) Quod arma habuērunt?
11) Ēius arma fuit hastae longae.
12) Eōs mīsērunt; eīs Rōmānōs vulnerāvērunt.