

1 EXERCISES

- I. 1) He has advised, they have advised, he has taught.
2) They have taught, he has had, they have had.
3) You have frightened, you have scared, you have held.
4) Have I seen? have they seen? we have remained.
5) He has held, they have held, they have frightened.
6) The stars have shone.
7) The boy had a beautiful cup.
8) Water has filled the cups.
9) Boys filled the cups with water.
10) They carefully carried the sick girl.
11) I have seen the shields and swords of the enemies before the gates.
12) Romulus has once surpassed and routed the Sabines.
- II. 1) Lūna in oppidum parvum lūxit.
2) Saepe in armīs virōrum lūxit.
3) Gladii et tubae liberōs terruērunt.
4) Sed oppidānī pūgnāre cum inimicīs properāvērunt.
5) Fēminae et liberī cum gaudiō mānsērunt.
6) Virī cum audāciā pūgnāvērunt.
7) Fēminae puerōs et puellās cum cūrā docuērunt.