1 Exercises

- I. 1) Men, the inhabitants of the town.
 - 2) On the beautiful fields of the farmer.
 - 3) The beautiful books of the teachers.
 - 4) Of the fierce winds.
 - 5) Of the slow servants.
 - 6) For the sailor, my friend.
 - 7) White and black horses.
 - 8) For the wretched boys of Duilius.
 - 9) I see horses on the field of Marcus, (my) friend.
 - 10) The servant loves Sextus, (my) friend.
 - 11) The book, a beautiful gift of Cornelia, delights the master.
 - 12) Is the sky beautiful?
 - 13) A good servant is not slow.
 - 14) Many farmers have black horses.
 - 15) The beautiful girls are daughters of the mistress.
 - 16) Your books are a pleasing gift.
- II. 1) Galbae amīcō meō librum dōnō.
 - 2) Līberīs Sextī dona multa dōnāmus.
 - 3) Fīliīs virōrum librōs pulchrōs donant.
 - 4) Virī miserō in oppidō habitant.
 - 5) In Graeciā terrā asperā Europae habitant.
 - 6) Multī sunt incolae in oppidīs Britanniae.